RAMSEY IS AFTER THE WEST END TIGERS

MADE SPECIAL TRIP SATURDAY NIGHT TO THEIR PLACES.

Secured a Number of Guns, Some Booze and Scared Them From Doing Business.

Sheriff Ramsey, in company with a number of deputies, took in certain sections in the western part of the county on Saturday night in an endeavor to "run down" a number of the supposedly bling tigers that are said to exist in that section.

For several weeks reports have been coming to the sheriff that any number of "tigers" were in full running order, and that untold of gambling, fights and the like were in progress each Saturday and Sunday in the section visited.

While they found the booze, they could not find anyone that claimed it, and as a consequence could make no arrests, but they also found a number of pistols which were thrown away, after they had invaded the territory, but only succeeded in making two arrests.

It seems that all of the places being closely connected it was an easy matter for them to spread the news upon the arrival of the officers and notify all, so they could not be caught up with in their disregard of the law.

A number of "skin" games were disturbed and gambling houses raided, but the inmates made good their escape before the arrival of the officers on the scene.

There has been so much trouble in Jonesville, Tloga and the camps in that section that the sheriff will take extra precaution in the future and see if the same cannot be stopped.

"ST. ELMO" FOR NEW BAIRD.

Popular Southern Novel to Be Reproduced on Friday Night.

The admirers of Augusta J. Evans' "St. Elmo," that classic of the Southland, will be delighted to learn that the clever pen of Nell Twomey has done into flesh and blood the interesting characters of the famous novel.

With sympathetic appreciation of the varied and interesting types so skilfully drawn by the author, Mr. Twomey has selected the leading scenes and characters and has produced a play of strength and merit which adheres to the narrative of the novel and which gains additional strength through the rapidity of the narrative and the exclusion of the lengthy philosophic discussions, which strips the principal characters of their extraneous conversations and leaves the palpitant human being, playing a drama of intensity and rapidity of action.

No character drawn by the novelist possesses a greater or more compelling interest than St. Elmo Murray, whose character undergoes a complete change when he makes the discovery that his boyish chum, the object of his youthful adoration, and the beautiful girl to whom he has given his passionate first love, have united in deceiving him.

Killing his chum in a duel St. Elmo sustains the shock which resulted in brain fever, from which he emerges with a character completely changed and at enmity with all mankind.

It is seldom that a dramatized novel realizes the individual estimate of the various characters, but Mr. Twomey has been singularly fortunate in producing a play in which the atmosphere of the book is maintained throughout and anyone who has properly read this famous work, the scenes of which are laid in Tennessee and Georgia, will admit the fidelity with which he has drawn the types. Every care has been bestowed upon the selection of the cast. Aided by specially built scenery the production is a notable one. It will be seen at the Baird, Friday, October 15th.

RETURNS FROM WASHINGTON.

Says Weather in the National Capital is Fine.

Col. Henry S. Chubb, register of the United States land office, has returned from a delightful visit of a week in Washington City, where he went to confer with some of the prominent members of the cabinet in reference to the Florida office-holders.

The Colonel, being placed in the position as chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, is naturally sought after by parties desiring office, and he is in consequence compelled to make a number of these trips every year to look after the interests of his friends.

That he has the situation well in his hand is better evidenced by the fact that he always manages to get what he goes after for them, and the opposition has found this out within the past few years.

BONNIE MELROSE.

MELROSE, Oct. 11.—Mr. and Mrs. C. Yearwood left Tuesday for Atlanta. Miss Belle Hall of Orange Heights was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Craig for several days last week.

W. H. Biggs, superintendent of schools for Clay county, was in town Thursday on school business. The enrollment is now up to 75 scholars and another teacher, Miss Zella Dougherty of Lake City, will assist the Misses L. and E. Mack from Monday on.

Miss Mae Barnett returned Wednesday from a very pleasant visit with friends at Jacksonville.

Rev. C. B. Hedrick has resumed the services at Trinity church, which have been carried all through the summer by Mr. A. C. Currie.

The revival meetings at the Methodist church have been attended by large congregations during the week.

The cemetery cleaning on Saturday was successfully carried out by the many cheerful workers present.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the First Methodist church will hold its regular monthly meeting this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Mrs. J. E. Futch will have charge of the program.

PATE SIMS AND HIS "PAL" ARE UP AGAIN

GIVEN SIX MONTHS BY JUDGE BEXLEY ON MONDAY.

Boys Were Warned to Steer Clear of That City, for They Were Not Wanted.

Pate Sims and Oscar Kelley, two youths from the city of High Springs, were brought here again Monday to be sent up for six months to the "gang," this time the charge being riding on a freight train.

These two young fellows have figured very conspicuously in the courts of High Springs for the past few years, and only a short while since they were sent up from that place on a vagrancy charge, the time having expired on Saturday last.

At the time these boys were sent from that place they were warned not to ever enter that city again, or they would be similarly dealt with, but heedless of what was told them, they "blew in" on Sunday to be sent out on Monday with the bracelets attached.

City Marshal McGriff saw the parties and quickly placed them under arrest, turning them over to Justice Bexley on Monday morning, when they were given the above sentence. The boys claim that it is a conspiracy on the part of certain ones to imprison them, but on the other hand the officers state that they do not have to contend with many little petty occurrences when they are absent from the city, and that the two, with others, are a hindrance and general nuisance, and that they cannot live in High Springs.

SHINES IN SOCIETY.

Women With Fascinating Hair Always Attract Attention.

If you are a woman with dull, lifeless, ordinary hair, do not feel distressed. Just make up your mind now that you can have just as luxuriant and captivating a head of hair as any other woman; and quickly, too.

Just go to W. M. Johnson's this very day and get a bottle of Parisian Sage. Use it as directed, and in two weeks your scalp will be free of dandruff, your hair will be soft, lustrous and beautiful.

If your hair is falling out, Parisian Sage will stop it.

If your hair is thin, Parisian Sage will make it grow in heavily.

If you have dandruff it will quickly vanish when Parisian Sage is used.

It prevents hair from turning gray; stops itching scalp almost instantly and is the ideal dressing for daily use.

A large bottle costs only 50 cents at W. M. Johnson's or direct, all charges prepaid, from the American makers, Giroux Mfg. Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

"For a long time my hair had been falling out and my scalp gave forth great quantities of dandruff. I used several so-called hair tonics but never received any benefit until I used Parisian Sage. This wonderful tonic cleansed the scalp and hair, removed the dandruff and stopped my hair falling out. There's nothing too good for me to say for Parisian Sage and I strongly endorse its use."—Mrs. Jessie Sweet, Lowell, Mich., June 28, 1909.

The Baird Theatre.

The double bill for the Baird Theatre on Monday evening was greeted with a large audience, many being present especially for the fine violin music of Prof. Harry Walman, who is a musician of some note, and who pleased his audience most excellently.

The trapeze work of Miss Valentine Moore was also a pleasing number and brought forth much liberal applause. In addition to the double bill, the management has the usual number of high-class reels and illustrated songs. They are doing their best to give the people of Gainesville a show that is well worthy of patronage, and in this they have thus far succeeded.

Gentlemen: I wish to thank you for your check in the sum of $5,000.00 which has just been handed me by your District Agent, Mr. B. R. Dr. Pearce took out these policies less than 19 months ago and at that time was in perfect health. His untimely death forcibly shows the wisdom of securing protection afforded by Life Insurance when in an insurable condition.

Your immediate and satisfactory payment of my claim is very much appreciated, and you have my best wishes for the continued success of the tried and proven, FLORIDA LIFE.

Very respectfully,

LETTER FROM MRS. PEARCE.

Florida Life Insurance Co.,
Jacksonville, Fla.

Gainesville, Fla., Oct. 2nd, 1909.

Gentlemen: I wish to thank you for your check in the sum of $5,000.00 which has just been handed me by your District Agent, Mr. B. R. Stripling of Ocala, in full settlement of my claim under Policies No. 2057-8 held by my late husband, Dr. Harry L. Pearce. Proofs of loss were forwarded to your office last night, reaching there this morning, and check in payment issued and forwarded immediately.

The dispatch with which this claim has been handled clearly demonstrates the advantage of dealing with a Home Company, thereby avoiding delays in making settlements.

Dr. Pearce took out these policies less than 19 months ago and at that time was in perfect health. His untimely death forcibly shows the wisdom of securing protection afforded by Life Insurance when in an insurable condition.

Your immediate and satisfactory payment of my claim is very much appreciated, and you have my best wishes for the continued success of the tried and proven, FLORIDA LIFE.

Very respectfully,

(Signed) LYDE BOWERS PEARCE, (Beneficiary.)

The act of Dr. Pearce in insuring his life was a noble one worthy of emulation by every father, husband, son, daughter and wife, for the protection of their estate, their loved ones and dependents.

Are You Insured? Don't wait; death comes with every tick of the clock. INSURE—do it now—with the FLORIDA LIFE, a home company whose policies give you perfect protection at a less cost than others, whose benefits are immediate, liberal and guaranteed in the policy. Our policies do all they promise and do not promise anything they cannot consistently do. Get a sample and compare it with the one you have, or the one you are considering, and see the difference. Let our agents show you and be convinced that we can give you the best and more for the money.

No matter what occurs, J. J. Hill's statement on the business outlook will enable him to say "I told you so."

Speaking of the harmony of the nations, German farmers are to grow American cotton in the fields of Texas for English spinners.

The reason why some people do not make a success of business is because they pay more attention to that of others than of their own.

There is one advantage about the proposal to drift to the pole and back—it will give us time to get breath before the next dispute begins.

What some people call principle is oftentimes nothing but a deep rooted opinion or a prejudice. In their case being sticklers for principle is only another name for sticklers for a prejudiced opinion.

R. P. Sears, of the mail order firm of Sears, Roebuck & Co. of Chicago, has retired from business after 25 years' activity. He piled up net profits of $25,000,000—about a million dollars a year, it is said. How much did you contribute?

The Jacksonville Floridian remarks that "Mrs. Ruth Bryan Leavitt is not helping her distinguished father very much in perselating in her candidacy for Congress from her district in Colorado. She has only recently been divorced from her husband, and modesty would demand just a little more seclusion."

The Tampa Daily Tribune on Sunday last began printing the full Associated Press report, the same as is furnished all the metropolitan morning daily newspapers. The Tribune has secured the exclusive franchise of this service south of Jacksonville, and Editor Stovall is now giving his patrons a newspaper equal in every respect to any morning journal in Florida.

It seemed as if all the mocking birds of the surrounding country had congregated in the large oaks in front of the editor's home last Sunday afternoon, and the air was filled with their sweet music for hours. We have not seen so many of the sweet singers for years as inhabit the city at the present time, and their little throats never tire of entertaining those who delight to listen to them.

By making a preliminary tour of the State at this time Hon. W. A. Blount, candidate for the U. S. Senate, is demonstrating to the other candidates that he knows a thing or two about politics. By the time the campaign opens Col. Blount will have the advantage of his opponents by having an organization in every county in the State. Keep your eye on Blount, for he will have to be reckoned with in the approaching campaign.

"THIN-SKINNED" FELLOWS.

There are a number of men in the public service of the nation, State, county and city, who come under the newspaper classification of "thin-skinned fellows," and the paper that prints all the news all the time is continually coming in contact with these fellows.

The "thin-skinned fellow" is the one who believes that no newspaper has a right to print his name in connection with anything he does in the capacity of a public servant unless he authorizes it done. We are continually meeting the fellow who says, "I didn't authorize" such and such a thing to be printed.

It is really unfortunate that more people do not understand the mission of the newspaper, and some of the trials of the men who make the paper possible.

If the "thin-skinned fellow" in public life does not want his "name in the paper," he can keep it out by retiring to private life and behaving himself, meaning of course that he must also keep out of the courts.

The newspapers have no desire to injure anyone, and whenever a public servant is misquoted the offending newspaper is always ready and willing to correct the error. Man is only mortal, and newspaper men make mistakes just like other kinds or classes of people. There is no reason to censure the newspaper man for making mistakes any more than the lawyer, or doctor, or a dentist, or minister. The newspaper man necessarily does his work in a hurry, and, if anything, is more liable, and hence more excusable, for his mistakes than other people, and yet he always gets the worst blame.

If the people generally, and the public servants in particular, better understood the work of the newspaper man there would be more of appreciation and less of censure for him.—Pensacola News.

Samuel Shaw of Hawthorn has entered The Sun's Corn Contest with six ears of corn, which originated in Madison county, Fla., and has been improved for twenty-five years. He says this corn never fails to make a good crop, no matter what the conditions. He made this year 450 bushels on 25 acres without any fertilizer, an average of 18 bushels to the acre, but one exceptional acre produced 30 bushels. Mr. Shaw also has seven tons of as fine pea vine hay as was ever grown, which was grown on seven acres, 12 acres of pinders, and 36 head of hogs which will net 125 pounds of pork each. He came to Alachua county from Madison last December, and says there is no excuse for farmers to buy feed and bacon, as he has produced all the above on a two-horse farm.

Hundreds of people in Gainesville would have witnessed the game of baseball between the Detroit and Pittsburg teams Saturday if they had only had the opportunity. They were betting on Ty Cobb "doing something"—and he did it by making the most sensational steal from third base to the home plate ever witnessed on the diamond. Cobb is a Georgia boy, and the Southern people are all rooting for the Detroit Tigers.

One man devotes his spare moments to improving his mind that he may secure a better position, another man uses his spare moments in teaching a dog tricks. Casual conversation with the people shows that former Governor Broward's friends will line up for him again next year about the same as they did in the last primary. His vote may fall a few thousand short in the first primary of the number he received in the first primary in 1908, but we shall not be surprised if he again leads the Senatorial ticket, as Blount and Reeves will undoubtedly draw considerably from Senator Tallafiero. Claude L'Engle is said to have a "knife up his sleeve" for Broward on account of having promised him, as L'Engle is alleged to claim, not to be a candidate this time, but Claude will not be able to do Broward much harm. The latter's friends are not the kind of men to "throw down" the former Governor for a man so addicted to "brain storms" as L'Engle seems to have been.

The fact that the Illinois Legislature has dictated that the humane treatment of animals shall be taught in the common schools, is recognition of a need which should not exist, but certainly is indicated. It is the unfortunate fact that humane treatment of animals is not an universal possession of young humanity. The Illinois law provides that one-half hour each week shall be devoted to teaching "kindness and justice to and humane treatment and protection of birds and other animals and the important part they fulfill in the economy of nature." A curious provision, however, is that of a penalty for any teacher's neglect to give the instruction—withholding five per cent of the teacher's monthly salary.

The declaration by the Maine law court, the highest tribunal in that State, that the ordinance excluding automobiles from the streets of Bar Harbor is constitutional, finally disposes of this much-discussed question, and Bar Harbor takes its reasonably safe position as a refuge from the chug and odor of gasoline vehicles.

TERRIBLE HURRICANE OFF THE GULF COAST

WEATHER BUREAU ISSUES WARNING TO ALL SHIPPERS.

Was Central Off Key West Monday Evening—Great Property Damage and Loss of Life Predicted.

The Sun received a wire from the Weather Bureau at Washington on Monday afternoon at 4:15 stating a terrible hurricane was central at Key West and great damage to property and loss of life would be left in its track on the peninsula of Florida.

This hurricane hit Havana hard and property losses from wind and rain are enormous, but no loss of life is reported.

Gainesville will probably feel the effects of this storm, but not so severe as it will be on the Gulf Coast.

The Sun received information at 10:30 o'clock last night that the storm had struck Key West with great force, and that the damage to property there would be fully $500,000.

At 8:30 p. m. the wind was blowing about 35 miles an hour at Titusville, and at 10 o'clock had reached a velocity of 60 miles an hour at St. Augustine.

LADIES ARE ACTIVE.

Request Every Woman Interested in Movement to Attend.

We earnestly request that every woman who is interested in the improvement of the schools throughout Alachua county to meet at the residence of Mrs. J. E. Futch, 601 East Church street, on Wednesday afternoon, October 13, at 4 o'clock.

At this time we hope to organize the Alachua County School Improvement Association. This follows from the educational rally which was held here on Friday night at the court house. We know that the enthusiasm shown at that meeting will bring out a large crowd.

The ladies of other States have accomplished so much along this line that we are certain the women of this State and county will be willing to do their best when the plans are shown them.

question whether or not the applicant had ever been in the army or navy, which the young man answered in the negative. From what can be learned Thomas is a deserter from the army, and was apprehended through the civil service examination.

With the top of his head blown off the body of Tony Dunden, a young man of 19 years, was found near his home, six miles northwest of Pensacola, at a late hour Thursday night and a coroner's jury making an examination declared that he committed suicide. Dunden was married about three weeks ago, and a few days afterward he and his young wife separated, she returning to the home of her parents. Since then he has been surly and non-communicative, even to relatives, and Thursday afternoon he borrowed a shot gun from a neighbor upon the pretense of desiring to take a hunt. Passing the house of another neighbor on his way to the woods he stated that he intended killing himself, but those who heard the statement thought he was joking. Late in the afternoon the report of a gun was heard, and when Dunden did not appear for supper a search was made, and his lifeless body found lying beside a tree. He had removed his shoes and, placing the muzzle of the gun at his forehead, had pulled the trigger with his toe, blowing out his brains.

FINDS HER DAUGHTER THROUGH A DREAM

THIS WAS EXPERIENCE OF MRS.
ELLIS OF PENSACOLA.

Dreamed Her Daughter Was in Jonesboro, Tenn., and Found the Dream Was True.

(Pensacola Journal.)

Finding her daughter, of whom she had not heard for eighteen years, through the medium of a dream, is the experience of Mrs. B. L. Ellis, residing at No. 117 East Intendencia street, who left here Thursday night for Jonesboro, Tenn., where she located her daughter, after correspondence taken up immediately after the dream.

According to Mrs. Ellis, her husband, the sole support of herself and infant daughter, died eighteen years ago in Jonesboro, Tenn., leaving her without money to take care of herself and child. At that time a neighbor offered to take care of the little one until Mrs. Ellis was in a position to take the child, and the offer was accepted, Mrs. Ellis coming too Pensacola, where she has since resided. After establishing herself here she decided to take charge of her little one, but she received no replies to her letters. Then she boarded a train for Jonesboro and went to the home where the family resided with whom she had left her daughter. To her great disappointment she found the house vacant, while nearby residents stated that the family had moved to parts unknown.

Instituted Search.

Mrs. Ellis returned to Pensacola greatly disappointed, but she did not abandon the search, but employed agents and detectives who advertised and searched in many cities of the country at a cost to her of nearly $3,000, but no trace of her little daughter could be found.

Finally the search was given up in despair.

One night, after a long day of worry, Mrs. Ellis states that she had a dream. This was that she had read an advertisement in The Pensacola Journal, in which her daughter was advertising for her mother. On awakening, she realized that it was only a dream, but it so impressed her that she could not dismiss it from her mind.

To relieve her mind, she wrote to a man she had formerly known in Jonesboro. She did not write to her daughter at the address given in the dream, for she knew that she could not stand the shock if she did not receive an answer. The man answered the letter, stating that her daughter was there and had been married for four years to a jeweler in good circumstances.

Daughter Receives News.

The news was immediately conveyed to Mrs. Dunn, the daughter, and the shock caused her to go into a faint. She had been led to believe, it is stated by the people who had adopted her, that her mother had died in Texas. She had been formally and legally adopted by the family and had been given an excellent education. She is an accomplished musician as well as proficient stenographer and book-keeper.

Mrs. Ellis goes to Jonesboro with the expectation of bringing her daughter and son-in-law back to Pensacola with her.

HON. W. K. ZEWADSKI.

Returns to His Native State After Absence of Three Years.
(Springfield (Ill.) Register.)

Hon. W. K. Zewadski leaves tomorrow with his wife and youngest son, Olaf Zewadski, for Ocala, Fla., where they will make their future home and from whence they came to Springfield in July, 1906. Mr. Zewadski has three other sons, W. K., Jr., who completes his study of law at the University of Michigan this term; Clarence, who is also attending the University of Michigan and who was for two years a carrier boy for The State Register, and Guy Zewadski, who is private secretary to Assistant General Freight Agent W. H. Wiley of the Wabash, with headquarters in St. Louis.

Springfield and the State of Illinois lose a valued citizen in the departure of Mr. Zewadski from this city. He is a man of sincerity, earnestness, ability and power. During the three years of residence in Springfield he has taken an active part in the political and church life of the community. He was a member of the First M. E. church. In politics he was a Democrat. He loved the fundamental principle of democracy—the advancement of the moral and material welfare of the people. He entered into political combats with a vigor and enthusiasm which won him a place in the councils of the party as well as a place in the hearts of his many friends and associates. During his stay here he has practiced law successfully. Last spring he was honored with the Democratic nomination for city attorney. In Florida he was elected to the Legislature three consecutive terms, and was recognized as a statesman of exceptional ability. His friends there are awaiting his return with much joy while Springfield feels keen regret that he is to leave here, but they wish him Godspeed, and, while regretting his departure, are pleased that he was with us so long. He regained his health while here. It was for that purpose he came. He will, of course, be a great "booster" for Springfield, not only as a beautiful place to work and to live, but as a health resort. And while he is saying nice things about Springfield down in Florida, he may rest assured Springfield will be "handling him bouquets" up here which will even outlive the blossoms of the Sunny South.

What "Marion Harland" Thinks of COTTLENE.

New York, December 15th, 1906.
The N. K. Fairbank Company, Chicago, Ill.

Dear Sirs: Many years ago I discontinued the use of lard in my kitchen and substituted for it—as an experiment—COTTLENE, then comparatively a new product.

Since my first trial of it, I can truly say that it has given complete satisfaction, whether it is used alone, as "shortening," or in combination with butter in pastry, biscuits, etc., or in frying, it has never disappointed me. I honestly believe it to be the very best thing of its kind ever offered to the American housekeeper, and I am glad of the opportunity to make my conviction public.

Yours truly,
"Marion Harland."

THE COMPROMISE.

He Thought He Was Firm and Knew
He Was Considerate.

The young man had entered that mysterious realm called matrimony, and as it was his first offense his father was handing him some paternal advice as to how he should treat the young wife.

"When you have any little differences of opinion, my son," he said to the boy, "if you can't persuade Margaret that you are right—and you probably can't, for they are all about alike—you must compromise. Be firm, yet be considerate and compromise."

"Yes, father," replied the son. "I well remember a little experience," and a reminiscent expression came over the old man's face, "on the very threshold of the married life of your mother and myself, and it was the basis of all future disputes. It was this way: I wanted to spend the summer, our first vacation together, in Maine, and your mother wanted to go to Saratoga. That was thirty years ago. But I shall never forget how firm and yet how considerate I was with your mother and how we compromised, avoiding all dispute. We stayed from Saturday noon to Tuesday morning at Bar Harbor, and then we spent the rest of the summer at Saratoga. Yes, indeed," the old man added, with a sigh, "that's the only way to deal with a woman. You must be firm, but be willing to compromise a little once in awhile, as I have done with your mother."—New York Tribune.

TIGERS IN INDIA.

Strange Hindoo Beliefs Concerning the Man Eaters.

In India the traditions of folklore are numerous and strange. Among those pertaining to the tiger the following are the most peculiar: The uneducated Hindoo (and he is in the great majority) believes that the ghost of a man killed by a tiger rides on the head of the beast that slew him to warn him of danger and to guide him to new victims. It is declared that God provides for the tiger's daily wants to the amount of 1 rupee a day—that is to say, if the tiger kills a calf worth 6 rupees he will not be allowed another victim for five days.

Eating the flesh of a tiger is supposed to give one great courage and alertness, but the whiskers must first be sliced off the beast or his spirit will haunt the man who fed off him, and he is likely to be turned into a tiger in the next world.

The following incident really occurred in a small Indian village in the interior: One of the villagers was unfortunately killed by a tiger. The police investigated the accidental death and rendered this verdict: "Pandu died of a tiger eating him. There was no other cause of death. Nothing was left of him save his bones and some fingers, which probably belonged to either the right or left hand."—Washington Star.

The World Went Round.

When Bloggins senior on the occasion of his annual party was obliging his guests with "Tis Love That Makes the World Go Round," Master William Bloggins seized the opportunity to retire for a few minutes behind the Japanese screen with his sire's half smoked cigar.

The applause subsiding, Master Bloggins was observed by one of the company to be looking far from well. His face had taken on the hue of putty, and his eyes stood out like small bat pegs.

"Good gracious, Willie! What's the matter?" cried Mrs. Bloggins in alarm. "I believe you've been smoking."

Willie shook his head. "Tain't that," he declared untruthfully. "If it's true what father's been saying about it—I reckon I'm in love!"—London Express.

SCIENCE PREVENTS BALDNESS.

The Fatal Germ and Its Remedy Now Facts of Science.

It is the rarest thing in the world for a man to be necessarily bald. No man whose hair is not dead at the roots, need be bald if he will use Newbro's Herpicide, the new scalp antiseptic. Herpicide destroys the germ that eats the hair off at the root; and cleans the scalp of dandruff and leaves it in a perfectly healthy condition. Mr. Mannett, in the Maryland Block, Butte, Mont., was entirely bald. In less than a month Herpicide had removed the enemies of hair growth, and nature did its work by covering his head with thick hair an inch long, and in six weeks he had a normal set of hair. Sold by leading druggists. Send 25c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. J. S. Rodford & Co., Special Agents.

The Physician.

Dr. Cathelin of Paris declares that no person who does not possess certain "six moral senses" should attempt to enter the medical profession—viz, the sense of duty, the sense of responsibility, the sense of kindness, the sense of manual skill (which he subdivides into the sense of boldness and the sense of prudence), the sense of beauty and the social role. "The sense of duty toward the patient," so he is quoted by the Boston Globe, "is the very first requisite in a physician. It can only arise from a positive and innate altruism or love of one's fellow creatures—a quality similar to that which moves the hospital nurse to the care of the stricken. There can be no personal sensitiveness nor lack of interest in details, as against an absorbing curiosity that complicated cases arouse, and yet, with all this sense of duty, which calls for extreme goodness and sensitiveness of heart, he must not show a trace of emotion when his duty calls him to operate on a McKinley, a Carnot or a Frederick II."

A Truthful Description.

In an illustrated description of the game of tennis Simplicissimus says: "Like all good things, lawn tennis is of English origin. Marie Stuart while a prisoner was compelled to beat carpets which were hung over a rail. Not contented with this humiliation, her sister, Queen Elizabeth, once threw a dead mouse at the unfortunate Marie while the latter was beating carpets. The little defunct rodent was caught on Marie's fall and sent back over the rail and was returned to her by means of a fall in the hands of Elizabeth, and thus the game of tennis originated." Further on in the same description it is said, "Two sets are formed, and while these flirt at the edge of the court others stand near the net and make efforts to speak English."

Women Suffer Agonies from Diseased Kidneys

And Most Women Do This Not Knowing the Real Cause of their Condition

These poor, suffering women have been led to believe that their misery of mind and body is entirely due to "ills of their sex." Usually the kidneys and bladder are responsible—or largely so. And in such cases, the kidneys and bladder are the organs, that need and must have attention.

Those torturing, enervating sick headaches, dragging pains in back, groin and limbs, bloating and swelling of the extremities, extreme nervousness or hysteria, listlessness and constant tired, worn-out feeling—are almost certain symptoms of disordered and diseased kidneys, bladder and liver.

DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills have, in thousands of cases, been demonstrated as remarkably beneficial in all such conditions of female organism—affording the most prompt relief and permanent benefit.

As an illustration of what these Pills will do, Mrs. P. M. Bray of Columbus, Ga., writes that she was very ill with kidney trouble, and that she is now well—and that these Pills are what cured her.

They are very pleasant to take, and can in no case, produce any deleterious effects upon the system——as syrupy, alcoholic, liquid preparations are apt to do.

E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, Ill., want every man and woman who have the least suspicion that they are afflicted with kidney and bladder diseases to at once write them, and a trial box of these Pills will be sent free by return mail post-paid. Do it to-day.

The Long Distance System

One of the most valuable features of our service, to our subscribers and to the public generally, is our connection with the extensive long distance lines of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company and the other associated Bell Telephone companies. We own thousands of miles of long distance lines in the seven States in which we operate and in addition can connect any telephone in our system with lines extending to any other city in which a Bell Telephone system is operated.

These long distance lines are of the most modern and improved construction, and are maintained at a high state of efficiency. The Bell systems, operating in various sections of the country, are uniform in their equipment and in their methods of operating.

Only by reason of this close traffic arrangement between the Bell Telephone companies is it possible to go to a Bell Telephone almost anywhere, ask for "Long Distance" and be put in communication with almost any point in the country.

This vast network of wires, radiating throughout the nation, is used daily in commerce and for social purposes by the banker, the farmer and citizens in all walks of life and our plant here is an important link in this great chain.
